

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF RHODE ISLAND

Kimberly DiPietro, Treasurer

Kimberly DiPietro has been an active member of the Junior League of Rhode Island for seven years. Recently, she has served as a member on the Fund Development Council and Communications Council. Earlier in her Junior League career she served as Membership Council Director during the 2010-2011 year. Kimberly resides in North Providence and works for Roger Williams University. She is also involved with several organizations including Women United through the United Way, the Food Bank's Women Ending Hunger Committee and is a member of the Ladies Amateur Golf Association. She is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island and holds a B.A. in Business Communications and certificates in Financial Planning and Design Thinking from Bryant University.