

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF RHODE ISLAND

Carole L. McLaughlin, Sustainer Council Director

Carole has been a member of the Junior League since 2002. She has served on and been the chair of the Project Committee (now Community Outreach) and Project Development. Carole previously served on the Board from 2006-2008 as the Project Council (Community Outreach) Director and she also served on the Shakespeare's Head Committee from 2009-2011.

Carole is criminal prosecutor in the Public Integrity Unit of the Rhode Island Office of Attorney General, specializing in white collar cases. She has worked as a prosecutor for thirteen years and prior to joining the Office of Attorney General she worked as a civil litigator in a local law firm. Carole has volunteered and mentored girls at St. Mary's Home for Children since 2001. She is a founding member and on the Board of Directors of DAMES (Dinner and More Exciting Surprises -A Group that mentors young women at St. Mary's Home for Children). Carole just completed two years as the chair of the Central Congregational Church Mission and Action Committee and continues to serve on the committee which plans all the churches volunteer efforts.