

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF RHODE ISLAND

Kelsey McKinnon, Community Outreach Council Director-Elect

Born and raised in the coastal state of RI, Kelsey grew up with a love for the ocean, seafood and the outdoors. In her free time, she enjoys time with her family, friends and sweet pets, exploring new areas, interior design, traveling, wine, yoga, and enjoying delicious food. Kelsey works in the Office of the Vice President for Research at Brown University and is also pursuing a masters in public health. She previously studied health policy at Providence College and will always be a friar fan! Her life motto is: life is so much better when your laughing.