

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF RHODE ISLAND

Maria Glanvill, Fund Development Council Co-Director

Maria has been an active member of JLRI since December 2019. She joined the JLRI to become more involved with her community and meet new friends. Currently serving as Co-Chair for the Fund Development Committee. Originally from New Jersey, she came to RI to attend Roger Williams University and holds a B.S. in Historic Preservation and certificates in Professional Fundraising from Boston University. As a person who loves anything beach and being active, the Ocean State matches her personally perfectly! She currently resides in East Providence with her husband and two funny, smart, sassy girls who always keeps her busy
