

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF RHODE ISLAND

Dana Berntsen, President-Elect

Dana Berntsen has been on the board Secretary for the last two years. She is excited to be taking on the role of President-Elect and working with leadership to develop processes with the new Governing Board and Management Team structure. Dana joined the Junior League of Rhode Island in 2007 after moving back to New England from New York. She has chaired several committees, including the Community Service and Provisional committee. She has also worked on the House Tour and the Project Development committees. She lives on the East Side of Providence where she is President of her condo association.
