

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF RHODE ISLAND

Phillippa J. Rackliffe, Executive Vice President (EVP)

Phillippa has been an active member of the Junior League of Rhode Island since 2013. This is her first year on the Executive board and holds the newly formed Executive Vice President role for the league. She is looking forward to serving on the Executive board and overseeing the day-to-day operations of the league by working directly with the four Committee Council Directors for the league. Phillippa has served on the Membership Committee for the past two years and was a committee member on Placement during her first active year in the league. During her time on the Membership Committee she helped to organize several recruitment and social events to promote JLRI. In addition, she ran several placement fairs to provide an opportunity for members to learn more about the four committee placements available to them within the league year: Membership, Communications, Fund Development and Community Service.

Phillippa grew up in North Kingstown, RI and went to the University of Rhode Island (URI) where she received a bachelor's degree in Human Science & Services. Phillippa has spent most of her career as a Marketing professional and is most recently employed at CVS Health in their corporate office in Woonsocket, RI. She also has an MBA from URI.

Phillippa currently resides in Cumberland, RI with her husband, Kevin and their dogs, Kay Kay and Kendall. She enjoys kayaking, hiking with the dogs, traveling, and spending time with friends and family.
