

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF RHODE ISLAND

Brittany Donahue, Membership Council Director

Brittany has been a member of the Junior League of Rhode Island since 2016. This is her first year of a two year term as Membership Council Director. Prior to becoming Council Director, Brittany served one year as a member of the Membership Committee after completing her provisional year. She is looking forward to engaging and expanding the Junior League of Rhode Island and building a network of women passionate about giving back to our local community.

Brittany grew up in Winston – Salem, NC. She moved to Rhode Island to attend Providence College where she received a B.A. in Political Science. Upon graduation, Brittany moved to Washington, D.C. and worked for the United State Senate. Brittany returned to Providence, RI in 2015 after receiving a job offer from her alma mater.

Brittany currently resides in Providence with her husband, Andy and their dog, Merry. Brittany is a southern girl adjusting to a New England way of life. She and Andy are avid Providence College Friar fans and can often be found at the Dunkin Donuts Center cheering on their team.
