

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF RHODE ISLAND

Sarah Lang, Secretary

Sarah has been an active member of the Junior League of Rhode Island since 2017. This is her first year on the Board of Directors and holds the Secretary role for the league. Sarah served on the Communications Committee during her first active year in the league. During her time on the Communications Committee she helped increase social media posts to draw attention to the JLRI. Sarah grew up in Louisiana and went to the Southeastern Louisiana where she received a bachelor's degree in Chemistry. She met her husband in graduate school at Texas A&M, where she completed her Master's of Science in Chemistry. While Sarah was working full time in Dallas, TX as a training developer, she completed the Purdue Learning Design & Technology Master's Program, which boosted her career opportunities in the Learning and Talent Development field. Sarah has spent most of her career as an Instructional Designer and is most recently employed at Sensata Technologies in their corporate office in Attleboro, MA. Sarah currently resides in Pawtucket, RI with her husband, Phillip, daughter, Hannah, and their dogs, Mandy and Ebbie. She enjoys traveling, food and wine, and spending time with friends and family.
